How to Bring Your Children to Christ . . . & Keep Them There shares biblical principles that will help parents with the most important of issues—guiding their children toward genuine conversion.

101 Things Husbands Do to Annoy Their Wives will delight both sexes, and makes a humorous evangelistic gift for other relatives, friends, and neighbors. ...: Motorcycles and Flea Markets ::...

Sent in by Tim K. (St. Louis, MO)

Every Sunday morning, a few miles from my home, there is an outdoor flea market. I had heard that about 5,000 people visit there every Sunday between 6:00 a.m. and noon. It occurred to me that most of those folks probably do not go to church. After discussing the matter with a few fellow Christian motorcyclists, we agreed to try to set up a booth using our motorcycles as "bait" so we could hand out tracts, etc.

So, one Sunday morning, my wife and I prayed and then went to check it out. Sure enough, a multitude of people were swarming the place looking for bargains. I approached the lady in charge of renting out booths and explained my intention. In five minutes the conversation went from, "Come back in four months to our annual meeting," to "Come next week and we'll give you a prime location for free!"

We came back the next Sunday and set up a 10' X 10' canopy, parked four motorcycles around it and set up a card table full of tracts. The money tracts are a real attention grabber. I had a couple of people ask, "How much for the big hundred dollar bills?" We told them, "Free! Everything is free except the motorcycles!" In five or six hours we talked with many people and gave out even more tracts.

Do you want to contribute your witnessing experiences, tract stories and creative evangelism ideas to the "Coffee Break" column? Send them to:
