Thanks for Thanks a Million

"I couldn't put it down. The Way of the Master is the textbook, Thanks a Million is the practical application. I plan to teach the Basic Training Course each semester, and Thanks a Million will now be required reading for the course." -- Chaplain Tony Miano, Ten-Four Ministries

Tony Miano has been a deputy sheriff for the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department since 1987. He served full-time until 2000, when he left full-time duty to pursue the ministry and to become a law enforcement chaplain. He is the author of the book, Take Up the Shield.

Unsolicited Radio Review

If your local radio station doesn't carry The Way of the Master Radio, you might like to send them this:

"I really like this program, and I really, really like to hear Todd Friel when he does a riff on something he feels strongly about . . . Todd is an inexhaustible reservoir of energy and enthusiasm (. . . he is about ten-thousand times more well-read and well-informed than the average talk-show host.) He's quick-witted, extroverted, and very likeable. In fact, Todd says lots more shocking and potentially explosive things . . . but he gets by with it because he is not brusque or short of change in the humble purse . . . You'll thank me for introducing you to Todd."

From an unsolicited review by Phil Johnson, John MacArthur's book editor and the executive Director of his radio program "Grace to You."

Failed Remote

I was a frustrated Christian. One night, I was flipping through the channels searching for something to watch until I felt sleepy, when the battery of my remote failed on channel where "The Way of The Master" was just beginning. While changing the batteries I was moved by the words from Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron. I have NEVER heard anyone talking like that. I cried; I could not sleep -- because I realized that the false idea that I was a good person had crept into my heart. Ever since that day, I wanted to learn more and more. I love their websites. I love to hear the radio show with Todd. In this past 3 months I've learned more than my years of going to church every Sunday; and this book (The Way of the Master) is truly amazing. Before, evangelism for me was embarrassing (because I learned the wrong way--the lunatic way). Now, I'm proud to open my mouth. I'm not afraid of questions that may come up, and I've ended up with so much compassion for the lost. I cannot waste any chance to share my faith...I just have to say, this is a MUST have book. God bless all of you who made this book a reality.

Dallas Boot Camp

Don't miss the Dallas Evangelism Boot Camp, October 11-15. This one will be unique because it will merge with "City Invasion" when hundreds of Christians will be invading all parts of Dallas, Denton and Fort Worth.

Halloween is Coming

Remember, this is the most exciting night of the year -- when people come to your door for tracts. Watch for another email a little later this month when we will have a "Halloween Special" on tracts.

We've also set up a witnessing website for the Halloween season. Meant to appeal to Jr. High and High School age kids who are looking for a "creepy" thrill around the Halloween season, it starts out with an opening screen that says, "Find out if you're going to die..." The site helps teens see that 10 out of 10 die -- and how much they need Christ before their appointment with death. Check it out at DeathBeth.com.

This Month's Special

This month only The Way of the Master 16 CD Series, by Ray Comfort comes with a free copy of, The Way of the Master book, a copy of the new book Thanks a Million, and ten Hell's Best Kept Secret CD's (that's $91 worth of material for $49.95).

- "[This] series is the most powerful teaching I have ever heard." Scott Cundiff, KY.
- "I've learned more in the last week listening to your series than I have in the 25 years I've been a Christian." Kevin M. Lewis, WI.
- "I listened to a tape per day, five days per week for two years solid. I'd like to thank [you for this] wonderful encouragement and stirring up of this soldier of the Lord Jesus Christ." Bjorn Stansfield

Free Table Access in Malls

Did you know that in certain states malls legally have to give you free access to have a literature table? It usually involves filling out some forms and you'll have to follow their rules... but the benefit is that you'll get to witness to lots of people in a very public location. Here are some ideas... Set up a sign that says "Answer the Million Dollar question and get a million dollars." Or make a sign that says "Who has the biggest brain? Try an IQ Test and find out!" Offer free candy prizes to kids for memorizing the Ten Commandments using the pictures off the Hey Kids tract.

How to Bring Your Children to Christ

"How to Bring Your Children to Christ is ideal for anyone involved in the spiritual training of youth, and is such an enjoyable read that you will want to complete it in one sitting. The fun-loving personality of the author combined with the timeless truths presented are an unbeatable combination." -- Stacy Oliver, Christian Book Previews.com

"God bless you for your powerful little book on bringing your child to Christ. I've read many books on child training over the years, but this one tops them all!" -- Pastor Ernest D. Witmer (MN)

Panic Attacks

This is from one of our phone operators: "I just talked to a lady named Glenda in New Orleans. She was in a Supermarket two weeks ago and picked up the book on Overcoming Panic Attacks. She said that she has not driven a car in over 30 years, because she would get a panic attack every time she got behind the wheel. She read the book last week and for the first time she drove her car to the doctor's office without having an attack. She is so happy that she doesn't have to bother any of her children or friends for a ride. She wanted to thank you for the help and God for leading you into writing the book. She hopes to see more of your books in the supermarkets."

"I am 13 year old and I had been having panic attacks over the last few months. They are the most scary things I have endured in a long time, but then I heard about the book, Overcoming Panic Attacks. I bought the book and since reading the book and applying what it says I have not had a panic attack for over a month now." ~E.P.

Door-to-Door Faith Boost for the Fainthearted

Sent in to us from Michael B. of Eure, NC

Our fishing team goes door-to-door evangelizing using this survey form we created. Everyone started out nervous using the form but after the first few homes everyone was pumped up for evangelism and didn't want to stop. We simply tell people that we are from a local church and we're conducting a survey to see what people in our community believe. The majority of people who answer the door agree to take the survey. No one has stopped us in the middle of the survey and refused the Gospel. Then we thank the person for taking the survey give them "Are you a good person" or a "Ticket to Heaven" tract and offer them a New Testament if they don't have one in the house already. Two churches in our county are using this approach to evangelism and this Monday night I'm assisting a new church in doing it too. This survey has been used very effectively over 200 times. It gives the fainthearted a boost in faith.

Reaching More than Fleas

Sent in to us from Joseph S. of Indian Trail, NC

I'm an elder at a church you mentioned in your August newsletter. I thought I'd give you a follow-up on the Lord's work in our midst. You were correct about our canceling the morning worship service to have the entire congregation pass out tracts at the local flea market as a result of viewing the 'In Season-Out of Season' video. Well, the men of the church decided that we should go a step further and actually rent a table at the flea market on Saturday, instead of meeting for our monthly men's breakfast. At least 1000 people were given tracts that morning. Each man testified to giving the 'Good Test' to at least 30-35 people during the five hours. Many were broken before God with their eyes welling-up. In twenty years of serving Christ, that morning was the highlight of my Christian walk. The men witnessing that morning unanimously agreed that we will rent a table once a month from now on. We had skeptics, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, church-goers and pagans all walking past us on their way to hell. Perhaps, as Jude says, we were able to snatch some from the fire.

Major Airline "Promotes" Hollywood CD

Sent in to us from Creighton B. of Denver, CO

I purchased 50 of Ray's "What Hollywood Believes" CD's. Although I was full of fear and trembling, as I boarded the plane, I approached these two delightful flight attendants and introduced myself. After telling them why I had been in L.A. with fear and trembling, I told them about Ray's CD, "What Hollywood Believes." Despite being full of fear and trembling, I told these flight attendants that I would like to make the CD available to anyone on the flight (at no expense). Did I mention I was full of fear and trembling? So during the flight, the older flight attendant approached me and asked to speak with me. (I thought she was going to tell me that there would be FAA Agents waiting to arrest me in Denver.) So, I grabbed a copy of the CD and went to the front of the plane to speak with her. To my surprise, she asked, "So do you want to make the announcement or do you want me to?" Stumbling for words, I asked, "Ummmmm, what announcement?" She replied, "The announcement about those CD's you were telling us about." I was dumbfounded. I cowardly said, "How about you make the announcement?" She said, "Alright, I sure will." A few minutes later, over the cabin's public address system, she promoted Ray's CD. Lord, you are amazing! As passengers were exiting the plane, and because I was so conveniently seated towards the front (good thing I was running late to LAX), I was able to give out about 25 CD's.
