Living Waters Video Contest

You could win $1,000

Go out and film witnessing clips; put your best clip up on YouTube.com. Drop us an email linking to it, and if you get first place you will win $1,000. Ten other people will get $100 runner-up prizes.

We are going to put the best clips onto one DVD called "Cream". Then we will take the cream of "Cream" and use it in the Third or Fourth Season of our television program.

So now you have a real reason to take a team and go witnessing with a camera. You can approach strangers and legitimately say, "We have entered a contest put on by a Southern California television production company, and we are asking people what they think happens after someone dies? May we interview you?"

Important:

- 1. Make sure you have good sound. Don't use a cheap microphone, and remember to hold it out for the person you are interviewing (it's easy to forget to do this). We can't use clips with bad sound.
- 2. Get on-film permission from the person. Ask (on camera) "Can we have permission to use this film on national television?" Make sure you use these exact words, and get footage of them saying a clear "Yes." We can't use it on TV unless we have this.
- 3. You must use digital video on Mini DV. Also, don't forget to use the zoom. Get up close and personal. Keep the person framed correctly.
- 4. Make sure you go through the Commandments, present the cross clearly, then repentance and faith. Keep it to about 5 minutes (10 minutes maximum), and PLEASE don't send it to us unless you think that it is a good interview--colorful/interesting.

Use your imagination. Interview Jews in synagogues, give a psychic a palm-reading (tell her future if she dies in her sins), talk to businessmen in elevators, Mormons on bikes, JW's at the door, rock musicians after a concert, chase down celebrities, interview police officers when they are arresting you for chasing down celebrities. The world is your oyster... this entire lost and dying world. So be prayerful, be creative, and try and stay out of trouble (if something does go wrong, make sure you get it on film).

The contest officially begins on February 14th, 2007, but you can begin filming immediately. Winners will be notified by May 30th, 2007. Make sure you keep the master video in a safe place, because that's what you will need to send us to collect your prize.

After you have posted the clip on www.youtube.com (after February 14th) remember to email us and give its name (e.g. "Witnessing to Mormon on bike"). Send the details to: Mark@livingwaters.com

Contest Rules and Notices

No purchase or entry fee is necessary to enter the Cream of the Cream Video Contest. Video and media guideless must be followed as outlined above in order for your entry to be eligible. If after winners have been notified, upon receipt of the winners' media, an entry is deemed by Living Waters Publications to be unusable for any reason; an alternate winner will be chosen at the sole discretion of Living Waters Publications. Living Waters Publications and its affiliates will not be held liable for any actions of the entrants of this contest in obtaining, producing and posting of their video, and all entrants have been informed that a minimum of video captured verbal permission must be obtained prior to any filming of interview participants. Entries will not be reviewed if permission is not easily intelligible at the beginning of the clip submitted. Video clips will be reviewed beginning February 14, 2007, and all entries must be submitted by midnight, May 20, 2007. Winners will be picked by a panel of judges to be selected by the management of Living Waters Publications. Winners will be notified via email by May 31, 2007. The names of winners and finalist will be posted on our websites. Cash prize winnings will be paid via check in the name of the entrant. All winners will be sent and required to submit an IRS W-9 form before payment is issued. All winners will be sent and required to complete and return a release form to be included with the original media containing the winning video footage. This media will become the property of Living Waters Publications and its affiliates, and will not be returned. If the winner declines to sign the release form, he or she will be disqualified, and an alternate prize winner will be selected.

New Game Board

We have been delighted with the response to the new board game, "Intelligent Design Versus Evolution." Please feel free to send the below email promotion all over the internet. Click HERE.

Parents: This game is an entertaining way to educate your children about the unscientific nature of evolution. Too many kids from Christian homes have had their faith in the Bible shaken, simply because they have been lied to about the origin of man (ages—12 years and upward, depending on the level of maturity).

What evolutionists are already saying:

"I don't like it."

"You think Bush is bad?? I've found something worse... Kirk Cameron and Ray Comfort's board game!"

". . . made me spit my water out."

“ . . . a board game by two idiots in North America who are ex-nothings will prove science wrong.”

“I get the feeling that this game will not be allowed to be sold most places.”

“I'd love to buy this game, then completely rip apart every 'brain card' online with cold, hard data!”

New CD

We now have “How to Get on Fire for God” in Spanish. This CD includes a clear salvation message, addressing those who may be trusting in a church, sacraments, or works to save them.

Evangelical Church Persecution in Lebanon

A dear friend of our ministry, who is an Evangelical Lebanese Pastor, alerted us to a tragic story of persecution that is taking place by the Catholic Church against an Evangelical church in Lebanon. We would encourage you to click on the following link and read the full account on the church's website: <http://www.cbbclebanon.com/english.html>.

If the Lord so prompts you, please feel free to write gracious letters stating your disapproval of this persecution. The following is a list of e-mail addresses for prominent leaders, both in the Lebanese Catholic Church and the Lebanese government:

Maybe You Should Do It

From One of our Staff Members

"After watching, The Nativity Story I leaned over to tell my friend, 'Someone should open air in this theatre after the movie.' When she answered, 'Maybe you should do it,' I told her I would pray about it even though I knew what the answer was. After the movie ended I had fear running through my body. Seconds were passing... I decided to take the step. My friend stood up and announced, 'My friend, Lisa here has an announcement to make.' I stood up and began to share about the reason for the holiday season. I talked about sin, repentance and the gospel, and had the attention of everyone. I heard shouts of 'Praise the Lord' and a few claps from the audience. I finished with, 'There is no greater importance than your eternal salvation . . . thanks for listening.' I was humbled and loved being a part of what God was doing." - Lisa Wright
